

DERBY BACH CHOIR

Founded in 1959, and originally based at the Cathedral, Derby Bach Choir has grown to over 100 members. It is one of the most acclaimed amateur choirs in the East Midlands.

Each year the choir performs three major concerts, not just Bach but a wide variety of choral works by composers from different eras and traditions, mixing the familiar with the less well known.

The choir has a strong tradition of singing with professional soloists and musicians, many of whom are acknowledged as world class in both the concert hall and recording studio.

We try, whenever possible, to widen our audience through special events and to celebrate our 50th anniversary, we commissioned a new choral work from our Musical Director, Richard Roddis.

Our friends and sponsors help support the Choir's ambition to bring the best of classical choral music to Derby.

The Choir has the ambition to present great works to wider audiences but we do need additional funding to achieve this.
